What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANDERSON, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eruption, Eruptive Eruptions, keeps sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THEY FOUGHT A DUEL.

Bare Nuckles Were the Weapons Chosen For The Contest.

Two Society Gentlemen Thirst to Vindicate Injured Honor and Get a Fine in Police Court.

BOWLING GREEN, KY., Nov. 22.—Society is very much agitated over a bloodless duel fought here Friday. Guy Kelley, a member of one of the wealthiest families of Nashville, arrived in the city Friday. He was accompanied by six young gentlemen friends.

In a short while after their arrival Carl Herdman, one of the best known young gentlemen of this city, received a challenge from Mr. Kelley to fight a duel.

In his challenge Mr. Kelly did not observe closely the ethics of the code, but suggested to Mr. Herdman that he be called to take his choice of knives or pistols.

Mr. Herdman was not long in accepting the challenge or naming the time, place and weapons, the latter being bare fists.

Kelley and his friends were promptly on hand, and preparations were made and the fight began. A Mr. Buntin was second for Kelly, Mr. Nahm for Herdman, and T. J. Jones was referee. One round was fought, and it is said Mr. Herdman, who is one of the best all round athletes in this portion of the State, got considerably the better of the affair.

The second round was begun, and just about the time it was being finished the police arrived on the scene and placed the young combatants, their seconds and referee under arrest.

The encounter was the result of a note written by young Kelley to one of Mr. Herdman's girl friends. The trial resulted in Kelley and his second, Buntin, and Herdman and his second, Nahm, and Referee T. J. Jones each being fined $7.50 and costs in the city court. The fines were promptly paid, and hostilities have ceased.

$500 Reward.

This amount the Lemon Chemical Co. proposes to pay to anyone who will prove that one of the testimonials concerning the wonderful effects of Lemon Chill Tonic are not genuine. Any one can write flattering articles and sign fictitious names, but "Lemon Chill Tonic" stands at the head as a Blood Purifier, a general tonic and appetizer. Lemon Chill Tonic is as potent as lemonade, and as large as the regular dollar size. Ask for Lemon Chill Tonic and insist on getting what you ask for. Take no substitute, but get a bottle, and you will thank this paper for drawing your attention to its merits. Price 50c. For sale and guaranteed by Clarksville Drug Co., Edwin Thomas, Jr., Manager.

Rickman—Winfree.

At 4 p. m. on Thursday Nov. 24th at the Presbyterian Church, Caskey, says the New Era, Mr. R. G. Rickman, an influential and popular young farmer of this county, and Miss Annie Winfree, the accomplished daughter of Mr. George Winfree, will be united in marriage. Rev. Mr. Barbee will officiate. The attendants will be Dr. R. B. Whitaker, of Caskey, and Miss Jennie Winfree of this city, Mr. A. S. Tribble and Miss Carrie Winfree. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bride and groom will adjourn to their future home, five miles south of this city.

Illinois. Kentucky.

From Danville, Ill., Mrs. H. J. Nabors writes: I have been using your remedies for scrofula and am greatly benefited. My back was almost one solid sore. Two boxes of Dr. Hale's Household Ointment healed it entirely.

From Olive Hill, Ky., Mrs. M. J. Matney writes: May 13, '92: "My daughter has been afflicted with erysipelas in her eyes from infancy. She is now past 12 years old and one eye is cured. It costs no more to get the best. This is the best ointment in the world for general use. Get a box at Clarksville Drug Co., Edwin Thomas, Jr., Manager."

Harry Scott's Wounds.

We are glad to state that the condition of young Harry Scott, who was shot by Chief Fritz Friday night, is much more favorable. The wound, while of a dangerous nature, will not prove fatal his physicians think. He is resting as well as could be expected under the circumstances and is receiving the kindest attention from every one.—New Era.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers, Mr. W. A. Baldridge, Millersville, Illinois, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller, leads all other preparations in this market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs, colds and croup." For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

No use of experimenting further when "C. C. C. Certain Chill Cure" is guaranteed to cure Chills and Fever, and is delightful to take. Sold by Owen & Moore.

COL. WM. SPENCE.

A Former Noted Tennessean Dies at Pensacola at a Ripe Age.

The Pensacola papers chronicle the death of Col. Wm. Spence, formerly of this State, who resided in Nashville many years and who got into some trouble there several years ago. It will be remembered that the whole State was shocked at the time by the announcement that Colonel Spence had shot and killed his son-in-law, Edward S. Wheat, in front of the Maxwell House. The trouble grew out of a business matter and Col. Spence thought he had been badly treated by Mr. Wheat. He took a pistol and deliberately shot Wheat dead. He was tried and convicted of murder with mitigating circumstances, if we remember rightly, and was sentenced to a term in the penitentiary. Owing to his former good standing and to his age a petition was started to have him pardoned by the Governor. This proved successful and he was turned loose. He went to Pensacola, where he ran a dairy for several years, making a living for himself and family. The writer saw him in Pensacola about four years ago and had many conversations with him. He frequently spoke of his trouble in Tennessee, always with the deepest feeling of regret. He expressed himself then as never wishing to return to the State, for the reason that he did not want to be brought face to face with scenes that would naturally be unpleasant to him. He preferred to live out the remainder of his life with people who knew but little of his past history. He often expressed a desire to be buried at Pensacola, and in compliance with this request the remains were deposited in the old Spanish burying ground, an enclosure of much natural beauty, where live oaks over a hundred years old stand as sentinels over the graves of men who have made the South historic by their deeds of valor, in its early struggles against the invasions of hostile enemies. There are very many people in Tennessee who will learn of his death with much sadness. He was about 80 years of age at the time of his death.

Druggists Who Substitute.

Beware of the druggist or general dealer who, when asked for Lemon Chill Tonic, has something "just as good" or "just like it." We say the person who habitually does this is not the one to trust with your prescriptions; he would be apt to substitute, if he hadn't what the prescription called for would put in something "just as good." There are many tonics on the market, but none claim to be better. Why then take the risk? The persons whose names are attached can tell you that Lemon Chill Tonic does everything we claim for it. Price 50c. For sale and guaranteed by Clarksville Drug Co., Edwin Thomas, Jr., Manager.

MONETARY CONFERENCE

An Independent Body Meets To-day at Brussels.

To Consider a Plan Which Contemplates An Increase in the General Use of Silver.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM, Nov. 22.—The International Monetary Conference meets here to-day for the purpose at the outset of listening to the propositions to be made by the American delegates, the Congress having been called at the instance of the United States. No definite programme has yet been outlined for to-day beyond the presentation of a plan, which contemplates an increase in the use of silver and the establishment of a more equitable bimetallic ratio. The American delegates are Ex-Comptroller Henry W. Cannon, Senator William B. Allison, Iowa, Senator John B. Jones, of Nevada, President E. Benjamin Andrews, of Brown University, Congressman McCreary, of Kentucky, and Edward O. Leech, Director of the Mint. Dr. Roland P. Faulkner is the secretary of the American delegation. Among the delegates from other countries are:

Great Britain—Sir William H. Houldsworth, M. P., for Northwest Manchester; Mr. Bertram Currie, partner in the bank of Messrs. Glynn, Mills, Currie & Co.; Hon. Sir Charles Freeman, K. C. B., Deputy Governor of the Mint.

Government of India—General Richard Strachey, G. P. S., formerly member of the Indian Council; Sir Guilford L. Molesworth, K. C. I. E.

France—Mr. Tirard, former Minister of Finance and President of Council; Mr. L. De Liron, high official in the Department of Finance; Mr. De Faville, high official in the Department of Finance.

Switzerland—Messrs. Cramer, Frey and Lardy, Minister at Paris.

Italy—Mr. Luigi Luzzatti, Mr. Ramona Semonelli and Mr. Domenico Zeppa, all members of the late Parliament, Italy.

Sweden—Hon. Fersell, ex-Minister of Finance.

Denmark—Mr. C. F. Tretgen.

The Belgium delegates include three monetarists, Senator Weber, Supt. Sainetlotte, of the Belgium Mint, and M. Montefiore Levy, a banker, and one bimetalist, M. Allard, director of the Mint. In the absence of M. Beernaert, Prime Minister and Minister of Finance, who ought to preside at the Conference, but who pleads pressure of business as his excuse for not doing so, an American will probably preside.

Count Von Alvensleben, German Minister to Belgium, Dr. Von Glase, nap, of the Imperial Treasury Department, and Herr Hartung, director of the Reichsbank, are the German delegates.

If an American is chosen to preside, it will probably be Senator Allison, who as chairman of the Senate committee on Appropriations, is also chairman of the delegation. The following is one of the plans, which will probably be submitted immediately after the opening of the Congress and which will be turned over to the committee on plan and scope of work. Recognition of some definite weight of fine gold as the universal foundation of the measure of value of the momentary system. Maintaining of the existing gold monetary systems of the various countries; cessation by them of the further coinage and issue of gold coins under 5,8055 grams of fine gold (20 franc piece); obligations of such countries to retire their smaller gold coins within the next ten years; issue of gold certificates for gold deposited by the principal mints or central banks for amounts of 500 grams of fine gold or multiples of that amount; agreement on a uniform mode of assaying; obligation of the government of each country to receive into its public treasuries the principal silver coins bearing their own stamp in payment of all sums.

Ladies, bring your little girls and get them a nice little jacket reaper. Ask for ten years. Respectfully, n22dt Mrs. ROSEFIELD.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY.

The Opinion of an Observant Man With Regard to Sam Jones' Work.

To the Tobacco Leaf-Chronicle.

The great evangelist, Sam Jones, and his coadjutors have come and gone, but the great and glorious results which crowned their noble efforts towards the amelioration and salvation of the people of this city and the adjacent country will only be made manifest in its completeness in eternity. From the beginning to the close of the series of the meetings it is safe to assert that the thousands who assembled at each service were made to see, feel and reflect upon what is right and what is wrong, and each made to feel their true inwardness in reference to their duty and destiny than ever before, by the members of the different denominations or the most hardened sinners in our midst.

Pastors and their flocks were stirred as never before to greater zeal in the Master's cause; the lukewarm were revived; backsliders were reclaimed and the careless and indifferent were brought to a sober reflection, whilst scores promised to take the proper step to lead better lives.

Sam Jones is, in his chosen work, the most remarkable man of the present century. He draws greater crowds, commands the most respectful attention, without special effort, than any man on the continent. Being a thoroughly consecrated Christian, he disarms criticism, removes prejudices, and now that he has preached, in his new departure style, in forty States of this Union, he is a welcome guest to the homes and hearts of the vast multitudes that have listened to his eloquent, soul-stirring appeals. We are at a loss to describe his magnetic power, but one thing all concede, he is doing a world of good in his mission of love for all mankind.

Rev. G. R. Stuart is one of the most earnest, practical divines in this country, a ripe scholar and a consecrated Christian gentleman. Sam Jones said of him, "Bro. Stuart is a better preacher than I am, but I beat him drawing a crowd." His sermon on "Motherhood" and the one to children created an impression for good that will be treasured in the years to come.

Mr. E. O. Excell, the noble specimen of Christian manhood, is as full of song as "Sam" and "George" are of preaching. Under his leadership the 150 who composed the home choir did their full share to add to the interest and enjoyment of the great meeting.

The churches in our city are reaping the fruits of the labors of this worthy trio, and a host of names will be enrolled upon the records of eternity, who will swell the list of the redeemed and saved thought the efforts of these noble workers in the cause of Christianity.

Christian Church Revival.

The revival continues with increasing interest. A full house greeted Evangelist Sharrard last night and listened attentively to his masterly sermon on "The New Constitution." A large number were baptized by the pastor. "The extent and limitations of the New Constitution" will be the subject for to night. Services daily at 10 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated into consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could not live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Owen & Moore's Drug Store, regular size, 50 cents and $1.

THE BRIGHT OUTLOOK.

Clarksville Should Get Ready to Enjoy the Good Times.

A Glowing Future is Predicted For the South Under Good Democratic Rule—Lee's Hustle.

The LEAF-CHRONICLE has given a few of the reasons why the people of Clarksville and Montgomery county should bestir themselves. There is going to be better times in the South and this city and county should get ready to take advantage of them. Along this line the New Orleans Picayune has an article that should be reproduced in every paper in the South and should be read by every man. It is as follows and gives a glowing but true picture of what is coming:

"Now, look out for an era of great material development in the Southern States."

"That the Southern States of the Union are incomparably rich in natural resources is a fact that cannot be controverted. In coal, iron, timber, building stones, and other natural material, the resources are practically inexhaustible and almost untouched, while the soil that produces all the cotton, sugar and rice and is capable of competing in corn and other food products with the other States of any section must command attention. The Southern oyster and other fisheries are also important."

"With an abundance of money, both in the Union and in England, seeking profitable investment, there is no other field that so advantageously invites it as is afforded by the extraordinary resources of our Southern States. There was but one circumstance that has militated in the last few years against a grand tide of development in these States, and that was the fear of a general disturbance of the social and political system and a complete unsettling of values and a disorganizing of all industries, caused by threatened radical legislation by Congress."

"When the Fifty first Congress commenced its sessions under the influence which then dominated the government the country was threatened with the enactment of the Lodge force bill or other equally prospective and arbitrary measures. Many of the Northern papers sounded a note of alarm and warned investors to beware of the South because of the dangerous sectional tendency of congressional legislation. The force bill finally failed, and by no mere chance that nobody could have any confidence that it had been thoroughly defeated. On the contrary, it hung over the country as a terrible menace, ready at any moment, while the Republican party was in power, to bring down calamity upon the country and particularly upon the Southern people."

"This sword of Damocles was suspended over the destinies of these States until the great political revolution of Tuesday, a week ago, proclaimed from mountain to sea, from river to plain, from the lakes to the everlasting hills, that sectionalism in American politics was no more; that a government of the whole people, by the whole people, for the benefit of all had been re-established."

"There will be no more danger of prospective legislation, and the people of the South, white and black, with their mines, their forests, their quarries, their fisheries, their fertile soil and genial climate will be permitted to work out their destiny for the greatest good to the greatest number and for the benefit and welfare of all, according to good old Democratic doctrines."

"Now comes the time for investment in Southern property, for the development of Southern resources, for it can be done in perfect security and with the fullest promise of rich returns for all judicious and intelligent transactions."
